

FEO Considers Raising Prices

Hopes To Ease Recent Ban

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Federal Energy Office (FEO) is reportedly considering raising retail gasoline prices for Americans and easing its recent ban against service stations giving preferential treatment to their regular customers.

Energy chief William E. Simon met Thursday with a group of seven governors who urged that gasoline supplies be allocated more fairly among the states.

One of them, Gov. Marvin Mandel of Maryland, has already sued Simon, charging that the federal allocation system was unfair and that Maryland deserved some 20.5 million more gallons of gas this month than Simon's office allowed.

Justice Department lawyers were scheduled to appear in U.S. District Court in Baltimore today to answer Mandel's charges on Simon's behalf. Maryland's deputy attorney general, Norman E. Polovoy, Thursday said Simon should resign. Simon was to meet with Maryland's congressional delegation today.

Word that Simon was considering both higher retail gasoline prices and an end to the present first-come-first-served rule at stations came Thursday from Democratic Gov. Dan Evans of Wash., chairman of the National Governors Conference, who was at the meeting with Simon.

Both steps presumably would be designed to placate gasoline dealers, some of whom say they are going out of business because they are unable to make sufficient profit on what gasoline they have to sell. The ban against selling only or mostly to long time customers, imposed this month, has been unpopular among many dealers.

Simon urged the governors to be patient and told them his office was revising the allocation formula to make it "completely fair" and to make sure each state "gets an equitable share of fuel."

In other energy developments:

President Nixon told a Cabinet meeting Thursday the nation has "a good chance" of avoiding full scale gasoline rationing this year.

FEO told states that any gasoline they import on their own from foreign suppliers would be subject to allocation controls. To ease its own shortage, Connecticut has gasoline over seas.

Crude Oil Reserves Increased

HOUSTON (UPI)— Shell Oil Co. and Gulf Oil Co. both said Thursday they have more crude oil on hand now than they did a year ago, but Gulf said its product inventories are down.

Shell also reported more product stocks.

Gulf said its crude oil inventories are down.

Shell also reported more product stocks.

Gulf said its crude oil inventories by Feb. 1 were 14.8 million barrels, up from 12.8 million barrels a year earlier. Its gasoline stocks amounted to 19.9 million barrels, down from 23.9 million.

Shell's crude stocks were 19.5 million barrels compared to 19.4 million barrels last year and 20.2 million barrels Jan. 1. Shell's gasoline stocks were 17.4 million barrels, up from 17.4 million barrels on Jan. 1, and 16.9 million barrels Jan. 1, 1973.

Collin County Expressway

to another vehicle and reached classes an hour and a half late, a school official said. Another bus was also reported stuck in the general area. The two roads involved are maintained by County Commissioner Raymond Jenkins in Pct. II. A road maintained by Commissioner Carl Marion on the western edge of the school district also was involved in a similar incident Thursday. (Staff photos by Mike Newman.)

On Glover

BY PAM TROBOY
Staff Writer

A hearing to determine whether Charles Glover, the "lost" prisoner of Collin County, should be tried as an adult or a juvenile for armed robbery was to have been held at 10 a.m. today.

Glover, 16, has been held in the Dallas County Juvenile Home since Feb. 14 when Judge David H. Brown of the 59th District Court ordered him held over for the certification hearing.

"Lost" in Collin County jails for 61 days last year, Glover had been missing since his release on a writ of habeas corpus on Dec. 3, 1973, until he was discovered in Dallas on Feb. 13.

Before certification, Judge Brown had requested a complete investigation of Glover's social history and a psychiatric report. An appointment with Dallas psychiatrist John Holbrook was made for Jan. 8, but Glover's attorney Nick Warden was unable to reach him to inform him of the appointment.

As county authorities sought the youth, Warden also attempted to find Glover through friends and by mail. The attorney said the Glover family has no phone and that a personal trip to Dallas failed to produce his client.

Following a systematic search, Plano authorities found Glover in a South Dallas apartment on Feb. 13. He was held overnight in the Plano City Jail and was transferred to McKinney on Feb. 14 for his detention hearing.

Glover was transferred to the Dallas facility because Judge Brown said he was "tired of the miserable, inhuman facilities in Collin County."

Last year, Glover was held in the McKinney City Jail for 61 days in virtual solitary confinement without shower facilities or exercise and fed on only two doughnuts and a TV dinner each day.

Judge Brown told Glover last week that "anytime you want a bath, you'll get one" and promised him "at least one square meal a day—none of these TV dinners."

Juvenile officer Pete Barnes made arrangements for Glover to be housed in Dallas and escorted him to the facility. Barnes also took Glover to be housed in Dallas

Fire Damage

A series of fires in the vicinity of East Meadows Apartments is now under investigation by Fire Marshal Bill Threet. Two firefighters are shown insuring that an apartment blaze is out. Furniture on the patio of Apt. 140 was set on fire Tuesday night with $50 damage resulting. A Wednesday night fire began on the patio of Apt. 136 in some cardboard boxes and charred the patio fence. Damages are still undetermined in the Wednesday fire. Three grass fires have also been reported in the area since Sunday. Threet said the apartment fires were "probably set," but the grass fires may have been started accidentally. (Staff photo by Mike Newman.)

Three Persons Dead In Hijack Attempt Of Delta Aircraft

BALTIMORE (UPI) — Three persons including a Delta Airlines copilot were killed today when a man attempted to hijack a plane at the Baltimore Washington International Airport. The hijacker also was among the dead, killed in a blaze of police gunfire.

The third victim was a security guard.

The plane's pilot, also shot by the unidentified hijacker, was in critical condition at the shock trauma unit of the University of Maryland Hospital in Baltimore where he was undergoing emergency surgery.

A stewardess was in fair condition at North Arundel Hospital with a back injury she suffered while escaping from the plane with the passengers, none of whom was injured.

The identities of the dead hijacker and airport policeman were not immediately available.

The pilot, Reese, Loftin, of Ft. Worth, suffered gunshot wounds in the back and shoulder. The co-pilot, Fred Jones, 32, of Dallas, suffered gunshot wounds of the left side of his head and chest.

The injured stewardess, Karen Smot, 21, of Detroit, Mich., was in fair condition at North Arundel Hospital with a back injury.

An FAA spokesman said the incident occurred about 7:03 a.m. EDT. The plane, flight 523, was scheduled to takeoff for Atlanta at 7:15.

Anne Arundel County, Md. police said a package believed to be a bomb was removed from the aircraft and placed at a distance.

New Price Surge Hits Consumers

WASHINGTON (UPI) — With soaring food and fuel prices providing most of the push, consumer prices surged nearly 1 per cent in January, even faster than the sharp runup of several previous months, the Labor Department disclosed today.

The first-of-the-year jump in the Consumer Price Index meant that Americans were paying 9.4 per cent more for goods and services at retail than they were in January, 1973.

That represented the biggest 12-month rise in the cost of living since 1951.

Eighty per cent of the usually large January rise was caused by higher prices for food and energy.

Supermarket food rose 1.6 per cent from December, gasoline and motor oil prices jumped 6 per cent.

Retail prices rose in January by 0.9 per cent without adjustments for seasonal factors, and by 1 per cent, with such adjustments.

The increase was the biggest monthly rise since August when prices surged after lifting of a short-term freeze.

The only price declines in the January report were for clothing and used cars.

The consumer price report followed disclosure a week ago that wholesale prices, also led by leaping food and fuel prices, spurted in January by 3.5 per cent.

New Record

PRAGUE (UPI) — Antoni Masek drove 40 miles to set a world record for driving blindfolded, the Czechoslovak news agency CTK reported Thursday.

Masek eclipsed the previous record of 13.5 miles set by Jan Grosby of Norway, CTK said.

Masek managed to drive from Tyn Nad Vltavou, Southern Bohemia, to Ceske Budejovice and back "with assistance of the police", CTK said.

Minister Stoned

NEW DELHI (UPI) — A helicopter carrying Indian Defense Minister Jagjivan Ram to a rally landed by mistake in a graveyard, and a group of opposition demonstrators climbed the cemetery walls and began stoning Ram and his party.

Shankar Temwari, a candidate on whose behalf Ram was to speak, rushed off to get a key to let the defense minister's party out of the graveyard. Before he could return, however, a group of opposition students discovered Ram's whereabouts, climbed the walls of the cemetery and began stoning the official party.

The defense minister canceled plans to speak at the rally in nearby Moghalsarai and flew off to Ghazipur instead.

Not Satan's Turf

BOISE, Idaho (UPI) — Satan would have a devil of a time making headway in Idaho, according to a Jesuit priest who has fought him.

The Rev. Karl Patzelt, who said he recently performed an exorcism in the San Francisco Bay area, suggested Thursday that possibilities for demonic possession were limited in Idaho.

He said the mentality or general climate of the area led him to doubt Satan was very active in Idaho. The priest said he had seen no indications of spiritualism, satanism or study of the occult during his visit to the state.

Patzelt said there was a definite relationship between occult activities and the devil. He viewed voodoo, Ouija boards, tarot cards and the like as "hooks" used by the devil to snare people.

Julie Feels Better

ASHINGTON (UPI) — Julie Nixon Eisenhower, recovering from ovarian cyst surgery, is "feeling a whole lot better," a White House spokesman said Thursday.

"She is in much better spirits," said Helen McCain Smith, the First Lady's press secretary. Julie, 25, underwent the operation a week ago in Indiana University Medical Center in Indianapolis.

The First Family also was in contact with the Nixons' older daughter Tricia Cox who remained in New York to celebrate her 28th birthday Thursday by going out to a quiet dinner with her husband Edward. Her mother ordered her favorite "Lady Baltimore" birthday cake for the occasion.

Clements' Warning

DALLAS (UPI) — The United States can cut defense spending and reduce its military power only in step with the Soviet Union, Deputy Defense Secretary William P. Clements Jr. said Thursday.

"We hope that negotiations will ease our burden of armaments in the future, but we can only decrease our military forces in step with the Soviets," Clements said.

Clements, speaking at a hometown Council on World Affairs, said there was no acceptable alternative to stationing U.S. troops in Western Europe or building its nuclear arsenal.

New Transportation

Giving the new Plano Co-Op Pre-School bus a nod of approval are Rutledge Haggard, from Collins County Savings and Loan Association; David McCall, 1974 United Fund president; Ray Houpt, past president of the UF; Jack Carter who painted the new sign with the assistance of Collin County Savings and Loan; Marjorie Otte, the director of the pre-school, and Eleanor Edwards, bus driver and volunteer. The bus, which was financed through the United Fund Agency, was purchased at Doran Chevrolet in Dallas at dealer's cost. The school is for Spanish-speaking children from four to six years of age, and is aimed at increasing their English vocabulary and preparing them for public schools. Classes are held each morning during the school year from 9 a.m. to 12 noon at Douglass school. There are presently 19 children enrolled. Other members of the pre-school staff not shown are Sarah Shipley and Martha Manning. There are also several other volunteers who assist the school staff. (Staff photo by Mike Newman.)

Official Maps Ready

Initial distribution of the 1974 Texas Official Highway Travel Map has been announced today by the Texas Highway Department.

During the year, some one million copies will be distributed to Texas drivers, making the map one of the most popular publications in the state.

In this era of fuel conservation, an accurate, up-to-date map is a valuable tool in charting short-line distances, a Highway Department spokesman said.

Although other means of transit are much in the news, the spokesman emphasized that highway travel by all types of motor vehicles will remain the dominant mode of transportation because of the state's sprawling geography.

Travelers are reminded that the map offers far more than most users realize. Study of the 1974 map legend shows that map typography indicates relative sizes of all cities and towns. Each type of highway is scribed differently, from Interstate routes to Farm Roads. Convenient red mileage figures tabulate total miles between major points.

Morrow

Enlists

In Army

Tony Jay Morrow, son of Mr. and Mrs. T.J. Morrow of Route 1 in Plano, enlisted in the U.S. Army for three years, according to Staff Sergeant Fred Ray, Collin County Army representative.

Morrow chose a dual option offered by the Army, and received his choice of training as well as unit of assignment. His choices were to be trained as a Power Generator mechanic, and after six weeks of basic training in Missouri, he will attend about 24 weeks of specialized training at Ft. Belvoir, Va. His choice of assignment was to the 2nd Armored Division at Ft. Hood.

Sgt. Ray will be glad to explain the options that are available to all area young men and women. A new mobile station is now open at Plano, in the 1500 block of Ave K.

Gemstone Cutting Offered

The Dallas Health & Science Museum is offering spring courses in Gemstone Cutting and/or Mineral Identification.

The class sessions are two hours nightly, once a week for six weeks. The fee is $15 for each course, which includes use of all equipment, and classes start the week of March 4.

These courses are for beginners as well as the experienced.

county seat.

The back of the map is devoted to enlarged diagrams of all major population areas, with main-line "through routes" clearly shown. On the Dallas-Fort Worth diagram, the immense new regional airport appears for the first time.

For travelers who wish more help in planning their Texas trips, the map pinpoints the Highway Department's 11 tourist information bureaus and visitor centers, where personal assistance by trained travel counselors is available.

Copies of the free map can be obtained at the tourist information centers, Highway Department district offices, or by mail from the Texas Highway Department, Travel and Information Division, P.O. Box 5064, Austin, Texas 78763.

In Houston

SWCD Reps Meet

John and Frances Wells of Plano and John K. and Margaret Hynds of Van Alstyne recently attended the annual meeting of the National Association of Soil and Water Conservation Districts held at Houston.

Wells, who is chairman of the Collin SWCD Board, and Hynds who is vice chairman, were officially representing the local district at this, the 28th annual meeting of the National Association. They reported over 2,000 in attendance.

Secretary of Agriculture

Earl L. Butz was the speaker for the banquet on Wednesday night. He stressed the need for continued emphasis on conservation of our natural resources created by the demands for more agricultural production. He pointed out that districts are playing an important role in guiding toward the proper treatment and use of our lands.

George R. Bagley of St. Joseph, La. was elected as the new president of NACD. He replaced John Wilder of Somerville, Tenn., who has served as association president for the past four years and is now serving as Lt. governor of Tennessee.

On Saturday, prior to the convention, the group held a dedication of a new building at its National Headquarters at League City. This new installation nearly doubles the facilities available to districts, agencies and others assisting in the district program.

The next regular meeting of the Collin board will be March 12 at 7:30 p.m. in McKinney. Currently board members, county commissioners, and representatives of the Soil Conservation Service are inspecting flood prevention sites to determine maintenance needs for the coming year.

Because the way was steep and long,
And through a strange and lonely land,
God placed upon my lips a song,
And put a lantern in my hand.

His Prayer for The Nation

In his first inaugural address, George Washington asked God to help him to be a good, successful president:

"Such being the impressions under which I have, in obedience to the public summons, repaired to the present stature, it would be particularly improper to omit in this first official act my fervent supplications to that Almighty Being who rules over the universe, who presides in the councils of nations, and whose providential acts can supply every human defect, that His benediction may consecrate to the liberties and happiness of the people of the United States a government instituted by themselves for these essential purposes, and may enable every instrument employed in its administration to execute with success the functions allotted to his charge."

Later in life, he reaffirmed his faith in the wisdom of God by saying: "The will of Heaven is not to be controverted or scrutinized by the children of this world. It therefore becometh the creatures of it to submit to the will of the Creator, whether it be to prolong or to shorten the number of our days, to bless them in health, or afflict them with pain."

Study Reveals

Political Commercials Work

By RICK DU BROW
HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — What effects do political television commercials have on voters?

Two Syracuse University professors, Thomas Patterson and Robert McClure, have tackled the question, and their conclusions are contained in a study published by the Citizens' Research Foundation, Princeton, N. J.

In a summary of the study, the foundation notes:

"Voter research prior to the introduction of television into American politics revealed that low interest voters ignored most efforts at political persuasion. Advocates of TV ads argue that they help overcome the apathy of these voters. The authors found that TV ads do indeed have a substantial impact on low interest voters. The authors suggest the explanation for this may be that low interest voters are especially susceptible to the influence of TV commercials compared to high interest voters, who are likely to rely on other sources of political information, such as newspapers and radio and TV news broadcasts.

TV Ads' Effect
Contrary to the claims of critics, moderately interested voters are affected by TV political ads even more than less interested voters."

In its summary of the study, the foundation adds: "Based on their findings for the (1972) presidential campaign, the authors reason that in campaigns for other offices, television advertising should have even greater impact and should influence high interest voters the most, due to the lack of political coverage from other information sources.

"In addition, they argue that in any campaign, TV commercials should have greater impact in primary than general elections, for the same reason."

Patterson and McClure

"monitored the television exposure of over 600 voters during the 1972 presidential campaign," according to the foundation's summary. "They analyzed the impact of three TV spots sponsored by 'Democrats for Nixon' which attacked George McGovern's stands on issues and his leadership qualities."

Key Info Source
Among the results of this survey in the study— "Political Advertising: Voter Reaction to Televised Political Commercials"— were these, says the summary:

—Political commercials "appear to be more effective when they communicate issue, rather than image, information."

—They "are an important source of information for certain voters."

—They "usually move undecided voters and vote switchers in the direction of their basic predispositions, which may or may not benefit the candidate sponsoring the commercial."

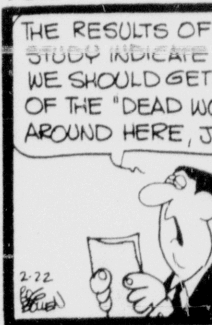

This information should mesmerize candidates for dogcatcher, Congress and other high posts.

Wheeler Signs With Houston

Mike Wheeler, a 1968 graduate of Plano High School, signed recently as a free agent to play professional football at offensive guard with the Houston Oilers of the National Football League.

Wheeler, currently attending Cameron in Lawton, Okla., was contacted by all 26 of the NFL teams before the draft but none picked him.

"I thought I had been passed over and might as well forget about playing pro football," Wheeler said. "But then I was contacted by Houston and I signed as a free agent."

"I was also contacted by the Detroit Wheels of the World Football League. But I told them I couldn't sign with them because I had already signed with Houston."

Wheeler was a starter on two of Plano High School's state championship teams. In 1965 as a sophomore, Wheeler started at defensive tackle for the AA state champs. In 1966, Wheeler played both offensive and defensive tackle. In 1967, Plano won the AA championship again and Wheeler anchored starting roles on both offense and defense.

Following graduation in 1968, Wheeler attended SMU, later transferring to Cameron. He started the past three seasons for Cameron at offensive tackle.

Wheeler will travel to Houston March 6 to attend rookie orientation.

How does the 260 lb., 6 foot 3 inch football player feel about going to the worst team in the NFL?

"I feel my chances are probably better at making the team with Houston since they were the last place club in the NFL last season," Wheeler said. "I feel I can contribute to Houston much more than if I had gone to an established team like Dallas or Miami."

Plano Booster Club Matches

Ivan Putski and Black Jack Lanza will be featured grapplers when "Big Time Wrestling" is held at Plano High School Gym, Saturday at 8 p.m.

The rotund, Polish powerhouse Putski and lanky, tough Lanza will battle in the main event for a time limit of 60 minutes, or best two of three falls.

"Big Time Wrestling" is being sponsored by the Plano Booster Club, to raise money to support Plano High School athletics.

Three other matches are scheduled Saturday night, beginning with a one-fall, 15-minute time limit bout between Jerry Oates, Georgia wrestler who recently came to Texas, and Dale Lewis, who claims to be the master of the sleeper-hold.

The second match will match-up Bob Orton Jr. and the Great Mephisto in a one-fall, 15-minute bout. Orton at a trim 212 lbs. will be at a big weight disadvantage against Mephisto but his experience in both high school and college should help to even the match.

Orton won high school amateur state championships in Missouri, Kansas and Florida and later carried his grappling experience into college, continuing until named All-American in 1968.

Mephisto is a rugged Arbie wrestler that not only holds the Texas championship but the Mid-East Championship.

The third event will be a tag-team match with Jerry Oates and Bob Orton Jr. teaming up against the

LonghornDuel Set with A&M

By United Press International

For the second time this season Texas has climbed into a tie for the Southwest Conference lead, but, just like before, the task of staying there will be difficult — beginning Saturday night.

The Longhorns, tied with Texas Tech at 8-3, will defend their newly won share of the league lead against Texas A&M (6-5) Saturday night in the highlight game on the conference schedule.

Texas will visit G. Rolie White Coliseum, that caldron of sound where Texas Tech stumbled a week ago in double overtime and where Texas A&M has not lost a game all season.

Tech, loser of two in a row and three of its last five, will likewise be trying to stay on top against Rice (4-7) in Lubbock while SMU, winner of five in a row and a game back of the co-leaders, entertains TCU (2-9). Baylor (5-6) will be at Arkansas (4-7) in the other conference encounter.

Texas moved into a tie with Texas Tech earlier this month when the Raiders lost their first game of the league season to SMU. But the Longhorns proceeded to lose their next two — to SMU and TCU, a team Texas had beaten by 51 points the first time they met.

"We have a much tougher schedule ahead than Texas Tech," said Longhorn Coach Leon Black. "We have two games on the road (Texas must visit Baylor as well as Texas A&M), and they only have one (a trip to TCU)."

SMU has relatively easy foes in TCU and Rice before meeting Texas Tech on the final Saturday of the season in Lubbock.

"But we won't have a chance at anything if we don't play well against TCU," said SMU Coach Bob Pruitt. "We can't do anything about any other games. The only thing we have anything to do with is the game in which we are playing."

"We are just going to worry about our own problems. We have enough of those."

Soccer Kid's Day Saturday

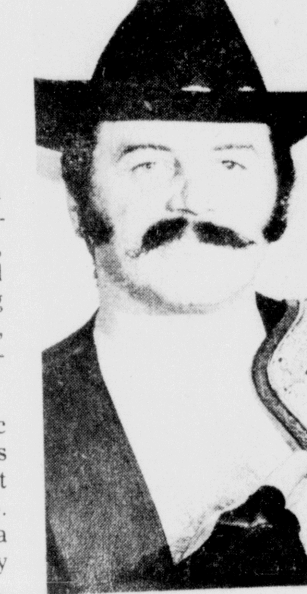

Plano High School Soccer Club will be having a "Kid's Day" at their soccer match with R.L. Turner Saturday. Plans by players and Coach Mike Collins calls for any boy or girl wearing a Plano Sports Authority or Plano YMCA soccer tee-shirt to be admitted free at the 3 p.m. contest.

"We urge all the kids and their parents to come to the game Saturday," Coach Collins said. "It should be a good game, because both R.L. Turner and Plano are trying for a spot in the North Texas High School Soccer League playoffs."

Plano has a 0-1-2 record going into the game.
